UNITED STATES JUDGES OF NEW YORK CITY WANT MORE MONEY.

They Send a Delegation to Washington in Their Behalf—Another From Chicago. Ice on the Potomac Breaks With Skaters. House and Senate—Other Notes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—A delegation made up of Messrs. Ellery Anderson, Clifford A. Hand, Edward K. Jones, Stephen A. Walker and Robert D. Benedict, the three first named representing the New York Bar association, appeared before the house committee on judiciary to-day, and gave their views respecting salaries of United States district and circuit judges of New York city.

Mr. Jones urged the necessity of increasing the salaries of the judges of the courts named, on the ground that expenses of living were so great in New York that salaries commensurate with a judge's position should be fixed.

W. C. Goudy and ex-Judge Fuller appeared in the interests of the Chicago judges.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The senate to-day adopted a resolution to pay to Daniel B. Lucas $1,000 as the expenses of his contest for the seat of Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia.

A resolution was adopted directing an investigation as to whether the street railroad companies of the District of Columbia are paying a fair share of taxation.

A series of resolutions by Mr. Chandler, calling for information as to contracts, expenditures, delays, etc., in connection with the construction of new naval vessels were taken up and adopted with an amendment by Mr. Butler, extending the inquiry to January 1, 1880, instead of March 4, 1885.

The senate then resumed consideration of the urgency deficiency appropriation bill.

The senate agricultural committee to-day heard arguments in favor of the bill to prevent adulteration of lard. Chicago lard manufacturers were present to argue that the lard adulterations now practiced cheapens without deteriorating the article sold.

The senate interstate commerce committee to-day heard arguments by representatives of the Railroad Conductors' association in favor of the bill which provides that railroad conductors and engineers and steamboat pilots shall be examined as to their competency, and licensed by a federal board of examiners.

House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—In the house this morning Mr. Randall introduced a bill for an engineer's examination, and report whether Smith's island and Windmill island, in the Delaware river, opposite Philadelphia, are obstructions to commerce, and, if so, authorizing the secretary of war to purchase and entirely remove these islands from the river. Referred.

Mr. Belmont, of New York, introduced a bill extending for one year from June 16 next, the time for the completion of the Staten Island bridge.

The house adopted a resolution directing an investigation into all kinds of trusts, and at 3:20 p. m. adjourned.

The house committee on coinage, weights and measures has agreed to report favorably the Maish bill providing for the suspension of coinage of three cent pieces, and that as they are returned by the treasury they be converted into nickels.

Skated on Thin Ice.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Monday afternoon Miss Cox, Mrs. Padelford and Mrs. Ordway, accompanied by Goutt Gregor, of the Russian legation; Dr. Dickson, of the navy and Mr. Richard Peters, made up a skating party. Off the navy yard on the Potomac the ice was believed to be strong enough to bear the skaters. All but Mrs. Ordway started out on the ice.

When about a mile from the shore the mount broke through the ice, where the river is sixty feet deep. Almost instantly the ice cracked again, and Dr. Dickson disappeared. Mr. Peters hurried to the rescue, and, he, too, fell in the river. Mrs. Ordway, who was watching the party, fainted. Several sailors from the navy yard went to the rescue, and after five of them had a bath all hands were safely landed on shore. The prominence of all the parties concerned has made the episode the social topic of the day.

Violation of the Revenue Laws.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—In the house judiciary committee a substitute for the Henderson bill was unanimously agreed upon. It provides for the abolition of the minimum penalties for violations of the revenue laws, makes all warrants returnable before the nearest judicial officer who is authorized to take preliminary examinations of the case, and restricts the issue of warrants for violation of the revenue laws.

The Report Has No Foundation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain was asked by a reporter as to the truth of the report that he is likely to succeed Lord Lansdowne as governor general of Canada. Mr. Chamberlain replied: "The report is absolutely without the slightest foundation."

HOUSE WARMING.

The New Ice Palace at St. Paul Formally Opened.

THE ST. PAUL ICE PALACE.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 26.—The hotels are all full for the opening of the third winter carnival here this afternoon, and with fine, mild weather and the elaborate program prepared, the outlook for ten days of frosty frolic is most favorable. Preparations are much better advanced than at either previous opening.

The ice palace was finished Saturday; the ice statuary, of which there will be many fine groups, is well on toward completion; some seven thousand street lamps are in place; the clubs have been drilling for weeks; the Indians are camped around the palace; the cable cars are running, and the floats are ready.

The ice palace stands on the same site as in former years, Central park, and occupies a space of 900 feet square, and rises to a height of 130 feet. No timbers or supports of any kind are used, the only material being ice. It is built in the Medieval style, and has a profusion of towers, keeps, bastions and turrets. In its building upwards of 60,000,000 pounds of ice have been used. The general appearance of the palace is at once majestic and ethereal, and, when lit up by thousands of electric globes of various colors, will present a beautiful appearance.

This afternoon his imperial highness, Durrant Borealis, rex, will receive the golden keys and enter into possession. The pageant attending the reception and installation of the ice king will be one of unusual magnificence, several thousand uniformed subjects of his majesty taking part.

COLLIERY EXPLOSION.

Horrible Fate of Fifty-Seven Miners at Victoria, B. C.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 26.—An explosion occurred in No. 5 pit of the Wellington collieries yesterday morning, by which over fifty lives were lost. A dense mass of dust and smoke shot into the air. The noise of the explosion was similar to the report of a large cannon. The fan house was destroyed, also the woodwork in the shaft. The fan house was quickly repaired and the fan started.

The shaft timbers were so badly damaged that the cages could not be used, but ropes were immediately lowered. The first miner to come out of the pit had climbed by means of the cage wire cable to within one hundred feet of the top. A rope was then lowered to him, and he reached the surface exhausted. A second miner was also rescued by this method, but the third when within fifty feet of the top suddenly relaxed his hold and fell to the bottom of the pit. Two men were then lowered as a searching party. They returned, and stated that nothing could be heard but calls from below.

Fortunately the mine had not taken fire. A temporary cage was made and lowered to a considerable depth, the miners climbing to it by means of ladders, so that 108 of the 108 miners were rescued. The unfortunate who had fallen back into the pit was taken out dead. The explosion took place in the last level, and in this twenty-five white miners and a number of Chinese were imprisoned. At 5 a. m. all the white men who were at work were carried out dead, and the taking out of Chinese began.

Physician Found Dead.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—Dr. Archibald E. Heighway, aged eighty-six, one of the wealthiest and best known physicians in the city, was found dead at 11:30 a. m. at the foot of the stairs leading from his office to his sleeping room on the second floor at 88 West Seventh street. He had evidently been lying there for some time. His son, Dr. A. E. Heighway, Jr., was so shocked by his father's death that he was taken ill and had to be removed to his home next door.

Miraculous Escape.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—A Kingman, Ariz., special says: Moag details are just received of the miraculous escape from death of the passengers in several Pullman cars on the Atlantic & Pacific. The train was going up grade when the sleepers broke loose, ran back, and plunged over an embankment, smashing the cars to pieces. No one was killed, but several passengers were severely injured.

Fire at Newark, Ohio.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 26.—O. G. King's shoe store at Newark, O., was completely gutted by fire last night. The loss on the building and stock is estimated at $150,000. D. L. Jones, hardware; Crane Brothers, millinery, and W. W. Sprague, jewelry, suffered heavily from water and smoke.

Disgraceful.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 26.—The work of procuring a jury in the tally sheet forgery cases is proceeding to-day. The most sensational scenes are taking place in court over the radical speeches of the attorneys. The judge has given notice that he will clear the court room and hold the sessions in private unless order is maintained.

REIGN OF TERROR IN CUBA

CITIZENS OF HAVANA MURDERED, ROBBED AND KIDNAPED.

The Officials Plunder the Treasury of Fifty Thousand Dollars and Suppress Outspoken Newspapers—Fresh Cause for Alarm Increasing Hourly.

KEY WEST, Fla., Jan. 26.—During the last ten days Havana has been in a turmoil and on the verge of mob violence. The trouble was caused by the unscrupulous acts of Captain General Marin and his officials. Although Marin has been in office three months, his administration is reeking with crime.

The government tax is short $50,000, the local board of alderman have gobbled $40,000, the Cardenas tax office is short $10,000, and every office of trust is honey-combed with fraud. Two weeks ago the indignant citizens made vain appeals to Marin for protection. A mass meeting was held, but Marin ordered armed guards about the gathering and prevented the speakers from addressing the people.

El Progreso, a mercantile newspaper, denounced Marin's act, and to-day the paper was suppressed by order of the despot. When Marin learned that merchants were sending cabigrams of protest to the home government he placed an armed guard about the cable office. Then the bright and fearless La Lucha, newspaper, censured Marin in caustic language, and the despot now threatens to suppress this sheet.

On Sunday there were twelve murders, one suicide, eight highway robberies and four stab wounds in Havana and Cardenas. Senor Pez, a wealthy sugar merchant, was found murdered in the streets. Senor Antonio Luis, a prominent planter of Guines, has been kidnapped, and is now held for ransom at some unknown place, probably by the murderer Lenque Romero. La Lucha in its last issue says: "We must protect ourselves, as we are living on top of a powder mine."

A special from Havana says that the situation is becoming more alarming every moment.

PREPARING FOR BATTLE.

The McCoy and Hatfield Factions Laying in Supplies of Ammunition.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Jan. 26.—There is nothing new from the fierce vendetta that is being waged between the Hatfield and McCoy factions in Pike county, Kentucky, and Logan county, West Virginia. The scenes are now in Logan county, a sparsely settled district, entirely without railroad or telegraph facilities, and with only a tri-weekly mail, consequently all news of a general character is brought by a special courier. Some Pike county people were here to-day and purchased and shipped sixteen Winchester rifles, 38 and 44-caliber, having purchased all that were to be had at our hardware stores.

It is also a known fact that a Hatfield party was here only a day or so ago and purchased $10 worth of ammunition. This, coupled with the fact that the county judge and county attorney of Pike county have gone to Frankfort in quest of arms, looks very much like the war is on in earnest, and that the wilds of West Virginia will ring with music during the coming week. Almost everybody is up in arms in the two counties named above, and the excitement increases daily. There is big fun ahead.

Murder at an Indiana Dance.

TIPTON, Ind., Jan. 26.—An unprovoked murder was committed a few evenings since in the northeastern part of this county. A dance was being held at the residence of Goodson Porter, and among those present were two young men named Date Garris and W. Reeder, between whom a grudge of several months' standing existed. During the evening Garris, Reeder and several other young people were conversing in a group, when Garris struck Reeder a terrible blow over the right ear with a long, heavy bluing bottle, filled with water to increase its weight. The blow crushed Reeder's skull like an eggshell and felled him insensible to the floor. He was at once removed to his home where he died a few hours later. The authorities were not notified of the tragedy until Garris had made his escape, and thus far he has succeeded in eluding the officers, who are in pursuit.

A Proposed $35,000,000 Road.

DULUTH, Minn., Jan. 26.—The Duluth, Northwestern & Winnipeg company, with a capital of $35,000,000, has been incorporated. The proposed line runs from Duluth to Grand Rapids on the upper Mississippi, to which point it will probably be built this season, and from there to the Manitoba border, and to a point on the Red river between the Northern Pacific at Fargo and the Manitoba road at Crookston. It will make an eastern connection with the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic road.

Dynamite Explosion.

JENKINTOWN, Pa., Jan. 26.—At 9 o'clock this morning a terrible explosion occurred at the dynamite factory at Bethayres station, near here. The building was entirely destroyed, and the workmen blown in all directions and several badly injured. A young man named John Gaston was the most seriously hurt, his side being cut open and his left arm torn off. He will probably die. The other injured men may recover. Every pane of glass within a half mile of the factory was broken.

Wheeling Glass Workers.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 26.—Special from Pittsburg to the News Letter says the board selected to arbitrate between the Central glass workers, of this city, and their employes, to-day decided that the verbal agreement existing between the company and their employes is binding. This decision removes these works from the ban of the new scale, presented by the Glass Manufacturers' association until July next.

Chicago Carpenters.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The Chicago Carpenters' union received a report from its committee last night, giving the result of the conference with the committee of boss carpenters. The demand for thirty-five cents an hour and eight hours work, from April 1 was virtually conceded by the bosses, and it is expected that a strike will be averted.

A MESSENGER'S VERSION.

A Postmistress Also Tells What She Knows About Hopkins and the Fidelity.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—Attorney Bateman read the testimony of Briggs Swift to the jury in the Hopkins case this morning. It was the same as used in the Harper trial.

James A. Bryan, a colored man, formerly Fidelity messenger, testified that he copied letters in the afternoons in a book kept by Harper. He was in the bank on June 14 until 6 a. m. His desk was about twenty-five feet from Miss Holmes'. Harper and Miss Holmes gave him the letter to copy. He never saw Hopkins dictating letters to Miss Holmes; in fact, he had very little to say to her. Never saw Hopkins have anything to do with the books of the bank.

Miss Ada Nixon, postmistress at Ludlow, Ky., was called, and a sprightly little lady, bright-eyed and rosy-cheeked, took the stand. She was formerly employed as assistant correspondent in the Fidelity. She never saw Hopkins dictating letters to Miss Holmes. When asked concerning Miss Holmes' movements in the bank, witness, with a toss of her head, said she paid no attention to her.

Josie Will Go Free.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 26.—It is authoritatively stated here that Josie Holmes will be set at liberty upon the conclusion of the Hopkins trial.

ARBITRATION FIRST.

Militia Afterward—Doings in the Ohio House and Senate.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 26.—The house this morning passed several bills, among them the bill prohibiting employers from calling on the militia and police to suppress strikes unless arbitration is first tried. The bill fixing the fees of county treasurers also passed.

In the senate, bills were introduced empowering official stenographers to swear witnesses and compel attendance for depositions, requiring horse doctors to obtain a state certificate before practicing; authorizing the payment of twenty-five cents for hawk scalp.

A protest was received in the senate from the Evangelical alliance against the repeal of the law punishing Sunday hunting and fishing. The bill making the commissioners of Hamilton county pay $600 a year toward the salary of the deputy of the police court clerk passed the senate and is now a law.

Pennsylvania Company's Troubles.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—All of the superintendents of divisions and branches of the Pennsylvania lines, between Pittsburg and Chicago, are in consultation with General Manager Baldwin, at the general office of the company in this city to-day. The meeting is held for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of concessions to be granted to the demands of their employes.

"Extraordinary care will be taken," said an official this morning, "to effect permanent satisfaction to all concerned, and by this means remove all possibilities of future trouble. Notwithstanding the denials from General Manager Pugh, of Philadelphia, and Superintendent Robert Pitcairn, of this city, the Brotherhood of Brakemen on the Pennsylvania railroad's middle and Pittsburg divisions, reaffirm that their demand for increased wages and other concessions have been placed in the hands of the general manager by a special committee. A brotherhood official states this morning that the Pennsylvania railroad will have to come to time as has the Pennsylvania company."

Probable Murder at Huntington, Ind.

HUNTINGTON, Ind., Jan. 26.—Yesterday at noon Charles Pfeiffer entered the saloon kept by William G. Morse, and asked for Morse. He was told that Morse was sleeping, and going to an alcove where the man was in bed he aroused him, slapped in the face and applied an opprobrious epithet. Morse stepped behind the bar and picked up a glass to throw at him, when Pfeiffer drew a revolver and fired, the shot entering just below the heart and ranging downward. Pfeiffer walked out and gave himself up. Morse is in a critical condition and will probably die. Pfeiffer formerly clerked for Morse, and the two had had trouble. Pfeiffer came here from Connersville, Ind., a couple of years ago and has a family.

Returned From Canada.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—E. C. W. Keefe, the Allegheny insurance agent, who suddenly left the city and was next heard from in Canada about two months ago, about whose disappearance and business liabilities so much was said at the time, has returned to the city. Mr. Keefe explains his absence by stating that he found it necessary to temporarily seek refuge from the unreasonable and persistent officials of the insurance companies he represented, who demanded of him a cold spot cash settlement at a time when he was unable to comply. He has now settled with all creditors and proposes again entering business. He denies having owed any money to an organization in which he was treasurer.

Mysterious Disappearance.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Jan. 26.—Following closely upon the flight of George Liet, the disappearing treasurer of the German Presbyterian church, is the disappearance of Tom M. McBride. He left his home on Gallia street Thursday evening to go to a grocery near by, where he purchased some provisions and left them to be called for on his return home, and has not been seen since. His wife and children are disheartened with grief, and fears of suicide are entertained. He is thirty-eight years of age, lately taught school at Mount Joy, this county, but has for some time been out of employment.

Two Grand Army Charters Revoked.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—Yesterday the council of administration of the state department of the Grand Army revoked the charters of the posts at Logansport and South Bend. The trouble arose from the Indianapolis faction of the Women's Auxiliary Relief corps securing recognition from the National encampment. The suspended posts have charged the state department officers with using undue influence in bringing this about.

Thirty-Three Years a Fugitive.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Jan. 26.—Richard Cassiboon has just been arrested for a crime committed thirty-three years ago. He killed William Hyde while the latter was interfering in a quarrel between Cassiboon and his wife. He got off with a short sentence of imprisonment, but broke jail and has been a fugitive from justice ever since.
